Press Cutting – Gampha Acupuncture Centre Opening – Ceylon Daily News, 1/11/1979

M. Senevirathne, Directors Life Assurance Ltd. from king certain action in rela- n to the firm until the de- sion of the shareholders meet- g requisitioned by Mr. S. Cu- araswamy, Chairman of Bo- nquet and Skrine Ltd.

Mr. Ajit Goonetilleke, Ma- ging Director of Life Assu- ance Ltd. and Colombo Life surance Ltd. were cited as ditional respondents.

The judge in the course of s order said that he did not lieve the evidence of the t and 2nd respondents (A. Goonetilleke and E. S. Wi- suriya) "Therefore it is my ew that the Court should terfere and order that an ex- aordinary general meeting be ld and the shareholders given opportunity and the free- m of selecting whomsoever ey want to elect as directors the Company", the judge id.

Training centres

Several vocational training ntres for youth will be set up various parts of the country the Sri Lanka Co-operative evelopment Council, Mr. C. M. Bogollagama, the Council's resident said yesterday.

He said the main purpose of hese vocational centres was to rain rural youth to be self-em- loyed.

The first of the centres will e at the Co-operative Training nstitute, Kurunegala, where outh will be trained for jobs n the Co-operative Department.

Among the subjects to be ught are shorthand, typing, rpentry, masonry, batik work, countancy and secretarial its Flag Day yesterday, to collect funds. Here some of the children are selling a flag.

Ceylon Tourist Board and Dr. E. V. P. Jeşudhason.

Katina pinkama

The annual Katina Pinkama of Siri Kirula Ashramaya, Kirula Place Narahenpita will be held tomorrow under the guidance of the Viharadhipathi Ven. Pandita Bombuwela Siri Sumedha Thero. Ven. Maduluwawe Sobhitha Thero will deliver the Katinanisamsa Dham-

Chairmen of four foreign Acupuncture Associations lit the traditional oil lamp at the opening of the 'Barefoot' Medical Service and the Acupuncture Centre at Gampaha yesterday. Pictured here are Mr. S. D. Bandaranayake, MP for Gampaha, Dr. A. L. Agrawal, President, Acupuncture Foundation of India, Dr. A. H. Mohamed, Representative from Nairobi, Dr. Sidney Rose Neil, Chairman, British Acupuncture Association and Dr. M. K. Acquaye, Representative from Ghana. (Picture by Roland Perera).